

Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA)

1. Definition of Confidential Information: Confidential Information includes but is not limited to trade secrets, source code, algorithms, product designs, technical documentation, financial statements, customer databases, marketing strategies, internal communications, research data, business plans, vendor information, pricing models, and any other proprietary information disclosed during employment, whether oral, written, electronic, or in any other form.

2. Employee Obligations: The Employee agrees to maintain strict confidentiality and shall not disclose, publish, copy, transmit, or use any Confidential Information except as required for legitimate business purposes. The Employee shall exercise reasonable care to protect such information from unauthorized access or disclosure.

3. Exclusions from Confidential Information: Information that becomes publicly available without breach of this Agreement, is lawfully received from a third party without restriction, or is independently developed without reference to Confidential Information shall not be considered confidential.

4. Return of Company Property: Upon termination of employment, the Employee shall immediately return all company property including documents, storage devices, access credentials, laptops, identification cards, and any copies containing confidential material.

5. Survival and Legal Remedies: The confidentiality obligations shall survive termination of employment. Any breach may result in disciplinary action, termination, and legal remedies including injunctions and damages.

Code of Conduct Policy

1. Professional Integrity: Employees must conduct themselves with honesty, fairness, and accountability in all professional dealings, avoiding any fraudulent or unethical behavior.
2. Anti-Discrimination and Harassment: The Company maintains a zero-tolerance policy for discrimination or harassment based on gender, race, religion, disability, age, or any legally protected characteristic.
3. Legal Compliance: Employees must comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and company policies. Any violation must be reported promptly.
4. Protection of Assets: Company resources including intellectual property, equipment, funds, and data must be used solely for legitimate business purposes.
5. Reporting Mechanism: Employees are encouraged to report unethical behavior through designated reporting channels without fear of retaliation.

Employee Handbook

1. Mission and Core Values: The Company is committed to innovation, integrity, teamwork, and excellence. Employees are expected to align their conduct with these values.
2. Equal Employment Opportunity: The Company provides equal employment opportunities without discrimination and promotes diversity and inclusion.
3. Workplace Safety: Employees must adhere to workplace safety guidelines and report unsafe conditions immediately.
4. Performance Evaluation: Performance reviews will be conducted periodically to assess contributions, professional development, and eligibility for promotions or incentives.
5. Grievance Redressal: Employees may raise concerns through structured grievance procedures ensuring fair and confidential resolution.

Leave Policy

1. Casual Leave: Employees may avail casual leave for urgent personal matters subject to prior approval and company limits.
2. Sick Leave: Sick leave may be granted for illness or medical emergencies. A medical certificate may be required for extended absence.
3. Earned Leave: Earned leave accumulates based on tenure and may be encashed or carried forward as per policy.
4. Maternity and Paternity Leave: Leave shall be granted in accordance with applicable labor laws.
5. Unpaid Leave: Extended unpaid leave may be granted at management discretion subject to business requirements.

Attendance Policy

1. Working Hours: Employees are required to adhere to standard working hours and designated break periods.
2. Late Arrival and Early Departure: Repeated late attendance without justification may result in disciplinary action.
3. Remote Work Policy: Remote or hybrid work arrangements must comply with productivity and reporting standards.
4. Absenteeism: Unapproved absenteeism may lead to warnings, suspension, or termination depending on severity.